The Danish Pastry House (DPH) is one of the reasons that our sandwiches taste so good. DPH supplies most of the bread that we use at Zigo. Every morning, while we are all still sleeping, their bakers are busy baking delicious bread. They bake from scratch using ingredients (and bakers) imported from Denmark. The result is simply the best bread in Boston.

DPH opened about the same time as Zigo and we were one of their first wholesale customers. We have grown together and continue to work closely to contribute to each other's success. You can find DPH's products at Zigo (we also sell their pastries), at farmers' markets and at their own stores. Their two stores are located in Watertown (205 Arlington Street) and in Medford (330 Boston Avenue).
